

Ximena Velasco

Fabian Velarde

Outline

Scene 1

Scott and Philip talk about Scott's problems between him and his wife. Scott says he wishes he didn't have a wife and kid. Philip has mental problems and he likes to fix his friends problems. Philip doesn't like to see his friend unhappy.

Scene 2

Scott wakes up to his wife and kid dead and police send him to jail until they find more evidence to give him the death penalty. Philip says he heard them fighting. Scott hires a lawyer to help him figure out what's really happening.

Scene 3

Philip moves to a different neighborhood. Another murder happens in Philip's new neighborhood. Philip is a suspect, but not arrested. Scott has few days to prove himself innocent before he gets the death penalty.

Scene 4

Philip is confused because he thought Scott wanted his wife and kid dead. Philip confesses thinking that he did right. Scott gets released and Philip gets arrested.

Exodus

Philip goes back to his normal life and still remembers his wife and kid, he then realizes he should not have been so selfish and should have been thankful for his family. He starts to have flashbacks of them.